

ACTION RESEARCH PLAN

(adapted from R. Allwright, 1993)

1. Identifying the problem
2. Decide on a specific focus for your classroom research
3. Find appropriate research procedures
 - Data collection techniques
4. Collect the data and analyze it
5. Reflect on your findings
 - Involves “shuttling back and forth between thinking and action”
6. Share your findings with others