

Action Research Student Activity

- Students take a minute to write down a question
- Share with the student next to them
- Have these students discuss the steps on how to this answer
- Now have these students respond to the other partner's question

Sample question: Why are oral presentation activities important in learning a foreign language?